

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

Remembrance Day
November 11th

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- A chief blesses a new recruit who is about to leave for the Second World War.

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Five Aboriginal volunteers from Saskatchewan in the Second World War

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Joseph Bomberry (left) and George Buck, from the Six Nations Reserve, WWI

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Jack Beaver of the Alderville Band in Ontario - WWII

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Nelson Shead -
Fisher River Band,
Manitoba - WWII

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Charles Byce (Cree) earned both the Distinguished Conduct Medal and the Military Medal in WWII.

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Tommy Prince (right) earned both the Military Medal and the Silver Star

“As soon as I put on my uniform I felt a better man.”

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Oliver Martin
(Mohawk) - a First and Second World War Veteran

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- David Greyeyes
(Muskeg Lake Reserve, Sask.) –
WWII

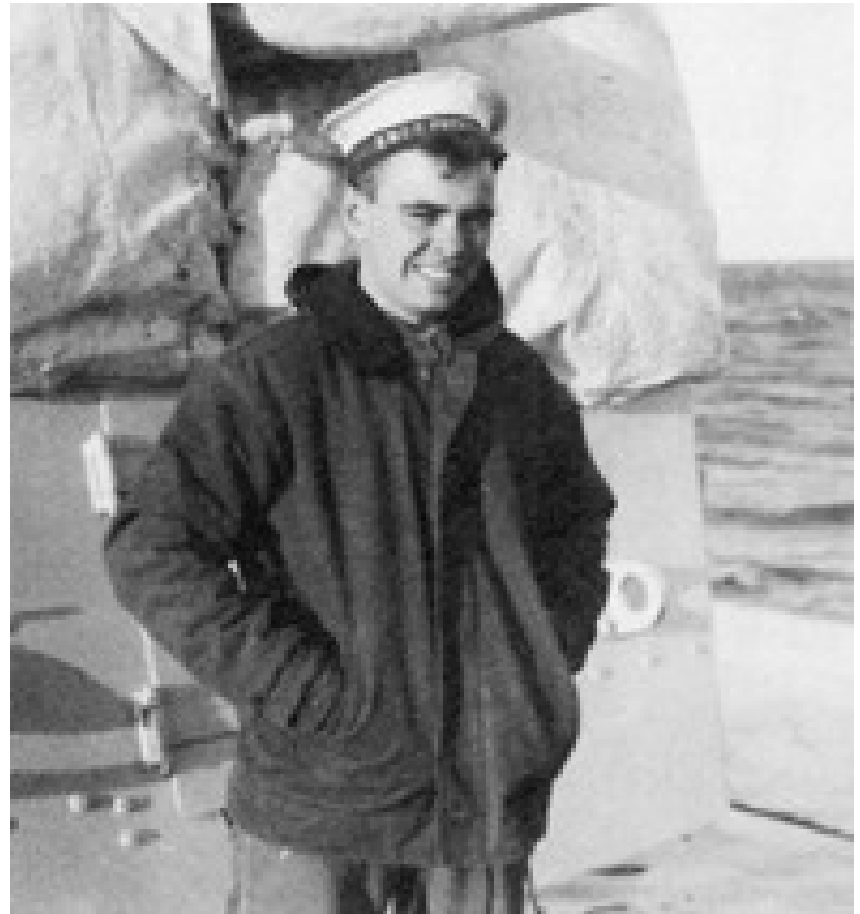

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Lt. James Moses of the Six Nations Reserve – died serving in World War One

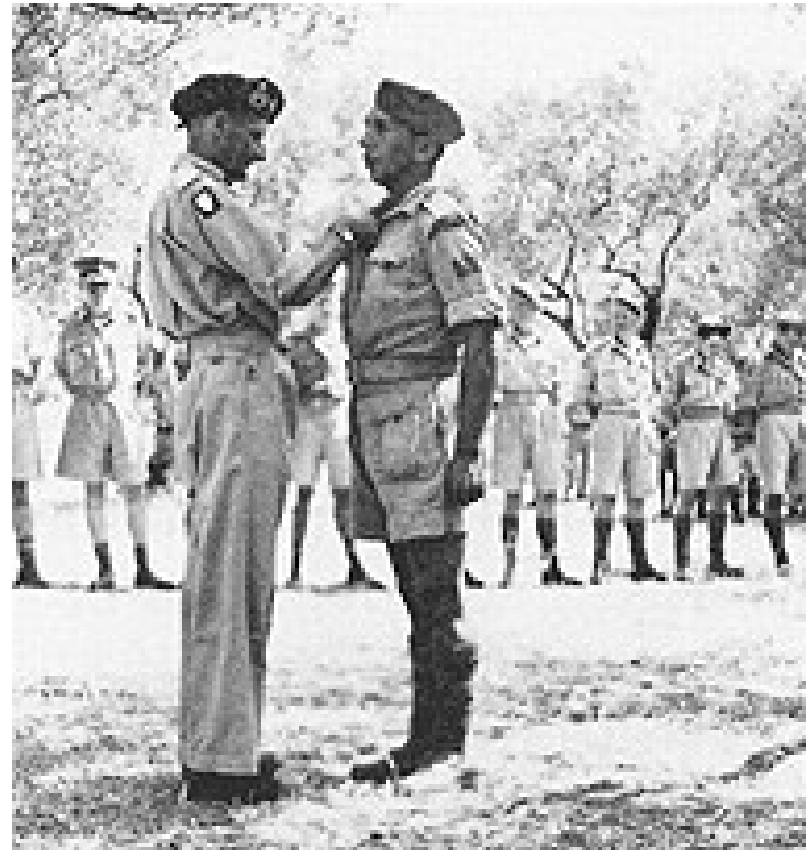

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Russ Moses, from the Six Nations Reserve, served during the Korean War.

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Huron Brant - Quinte Band, Ont. earned the Military Medal in 1943 and died in battle one year later

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Cameron Brant – Mohawk - was 28 years old when he was killed in the First World War

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

Ron Lowry
(Mohawk) – served in the Korean War

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Francis Pegahmagabow –
(Parry Island Band, Ont)
- The most decorated Aboriginal soldier in WWI

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Henry Norwest –
Métis – died in battle
3 months before
WWI ended

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Tom Longboat – Six Nations Reserve – A world renowned long distance runner served in WWI

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Edith Anderson –
Six Nations Reserve served as a nurse in WWI

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Joan Martin (right), an Ojibway from Ontario, served in WWII

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- Chief Joe Dreaver (Cree) served in both World Wars

Remembering Aboriginal Soldiers

- The National Aboriginal Veterans War Memorial in Ottawa

