

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package ABORIGINAL LEARNING OUTCOMES

Aboriginal Nations Education Division: Library Resources

GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT
556 Boleskine Road
VICTORIA, BC V8Z 1E8

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 1: Daily and Seasonal Changes (page 62)

- ✚ Describe activities of Aboriginal peoples in BC in each seasonal cycle:
 - gives several examples that show how activities of Aboriginal peoples differ according to seasonal cycles and regions (e.g. differences between activities in the Interior/coast; north/south)
 - prepare a detailed list of local Aboriginal Activities in the;
 - fall (e.g. berry picking, freezing, and drying; equipment readied for hunting season; firewood stacked)
 - winter (e.g. sports activities, feasts and potlatches)
 - spring (e.g. planting, making ooligan oil, gathering cedar bark and plant medicine, picking seaweed)
 - summer (e.g. picnics, baking bannock, preparing fish nets, canning smoking and cooking fish, picking berries)

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

A Salmon for Simon

Author: Betty Waterton and Ann Blades

Simon has always longed to catch a salmon. But when his luck suddenly changes and an eagle accidentally drops one into a tidal pool. Simon is torn between sympathy for the fish and the desire to catch something of his own.

PI 446.8 WAT (Available in French)

Alego (Inuit)

Author: Ningeokuluk Teevee

A story about a young girl who goes to gather clams with her grandmother.

PI 813.6: TEE

Bannock Book, The

Linda Ducharme

A young Michif girl helps her mother bake bannock for the family.

PI 813.6: DUC

Bears and Berries

Author: Trisha Gessler

A young girl called Sunshine describes her adventure as she picks berries with her mother and prepares for a family feast. During the process of picking her berries she is told the story of the bears and the little girl who went berry picking in the forest and spoke unkind words about the bears.

PI 813.54 QUE

Berries

Author: Pam Holloway

A leveled book that demonstrates the different variety of berries found in the wild.

PI 418 HOL

Building an Igloo

Author: Ulli Steltzer

Text, photographs, and subject are a fascinating, and respectful glimpse at a traditional art appealing to children.

PI 693.91 STE

Come and Learn With Me

Éwo, sêh Kedîdîh

Author: Sheyenne Jumbo

Come and learn with Sheyenne as she takes you on a journey through her community in the fall: the season of moose. This book reveals a northern Canadian community at harvest time through the eyes of a curious child.

PI 971.9 JUM

Coyote and the Sun and other Stories

Secwepemc College of Education Society

The stories in this book are about the world after it grew. You will learn how the seasons came to be according to the Shuswap story tellers.

PI 398.2 SEC

Byron through the Seasons

A Dene-English Story Book

By the Children of La Loche and Friends

This book focuses on Dene culture and covers the seasonal activities of the people.

PI 971.00497 LAL

Cedar

Author: Pam Holloway

A reader that demonstrates the many uses of cedar.

PI 418 HOL

Cedar

Author: Hilary Stewart

This is an excellent teacher's resource. Hilary explains through vivid descriptions and detailed drawings, the tools and techniques used, as well as the crafted objects and their uses - all in the context of daily and ceremonial life.

GS 674 STE

Cedar, The: Queen Charlotte Islands Reader

Author: GuuJaaw

A story that focuses on the many uses of cedar with the Haida people.

PI 813.54 QUE

Changes

Author: Penny Condon

Changes is written and illustrated by Métis artist and author Penny Condon. A small Métis child named Kona asks the Gathering Spirit a number of questions about the changing seasons.

PI 813.54 CON

David's Day

Author: Diane Brookes

A simple story about a child's life out on the land in the Arctic Tundra in the summer months.

PI 813.54 BRO

Delta is my Home, The

Author: Tom McLeod

Tom is an 11 yr. old from Aklavik (Gwichin and Inuvialuit) Tom tells of the Mackenzie Delta floods in the spring, how to make bannock, trapping muskrats and hunting black ducks.

PI 971.9 MIL

First Nations Awareness: Putting It All Together (Teacher's Resource/Lesson Plans)

Available in French

Author: First Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

10 units of First Nations studies at the primary - intermediate level. They are based on the Pacific Coast Nations. (Coast Salish, Nuuchahnulth and Kwakwaka'wakw) E.g.: Salmon Legend and Salmon Cycle.

GS 371.3 FNED

First Nations in BC: Comparing Interior and Coastal Cultures

(Teacher's Resource/Lesson-plans)Also

Author: First Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

24 units of First Nations studies that compares the BC Coast and Interior First Nations people.

GS 371.3 FNED (Available in French)

First Salmon

Author: Roxanne Salone

First Salmon is a yearly event celebrated by various Native American Tribes along the Puget Sound area of Western Washington to honor and welcome back the salmon that have provided them sustenance for centuries.

PI 813.6 SAL

First Strawberries, The – A Cherokee Story

Retold by: Joseph Bruchac

PI 398.2

Fish Trap of Duck Lake, The

Author: SD #55 Burns Lake

A story about the Wetsu'wet'en people, and their use of fish traps in Duncan Lake.

PI 394 SD #55

Fishing with Grandpa

Author: Wendy Edwards

A young girl recounts the time in her youth when she would spend time with her grandpa and go fishing.

PI 418 EDW

Foods of the Shuswap

Author: Shuswap Cultural series

This book focuses on the traditional seasons and the type of food gathered by the Shuswap people.

PI 971.1 SEC

Girl who Swam with the Fish, The: An Athabaskan Legend

Author: Michelle Renner

The story is a retelling of a familiar Athabaskan legend. In an instant a young girl is catapulted into a long, watery journey that will answer her questions and teach her much about the ways of the salmon.

PI 398.2 REN

Haida and the Inuit, The: People of the Seasons

Author: Heather Smith Siska

Explorations Series-A Canadian Social Studies Program for Elementary Schools. Find out about Canada's early people through shared stories and photographs.

PI 970.00497 SIS

How Food Was Given: An Okanagan Legend

Author: Okanagan Tribal Council

This story depicts a legend of the Okanagan Peoples. The importance of this legend is to aid in teaching a message of respect, self-sacrifice, sharing and reverence in all forms.

PI 398.2 OKA

Journey of Dog Salmon, The

Author: Bruce Martin, Tal-Keesh-Pihk-Uh

PI 398.2 MAR

Keepers of the Animals

Authors: Michael Caduto & Joseph Bruchac

Native stories of wildlife for children.

PI 398.2 CAD

Ktunaxa Legends

These legends are told to teach Ktunaxa children never to waste by learning to have respect for creation and all of life, and the origin of the four seasons.

PI 398.2 KOO

Little Polar Bear and the Husky Pup

Author: Hans de Beer

Lars, the little polar bear, rescues a stranded husky puppy and helps him find food and his mother.

PI 813.54 deB

Louie's Hat (Reading Level 1-4)

Eagle Crest Leveled Readers Series

Louie tells the story of his cedar hat. (Cowichan)

PI 418 ADA

My Family

Penny Condon

Join a Métis family fathering for a feast as told through the eyes of a young child named Kona. My Family tells about the roles of different family members while they prepare to have the feast. You will meet Kona's grandparents, parents, siblings, uncles, aunts and cousins as they each get ready for the family gathering.

PI 813.54: CON

My Grandma Makes Bannock

Author: Nechako Lakes School District (Terrace)

The students recount their experience making bannock with their grandmother.

PI 641 SD #91

Neekna and Chemai

Author: Okanagan Tribal Council

Through two friends we learn about the seasonal life pattern of the Okanagan Indians.

PI 398.2 OKA

Our Auntie Makes Indian Ice Cream

Author: School District #91 Nechako Lakes

Students recount their experience making Indian ice cream out of soap berries.

PI 641 SD #91

Our Smoked Oolichans

Author: Hartley Bay School

Hartley Bay School District students tell the story of how their class worked with Elders to smoke the oolichans.

PI 641 SD #52

People of the Salmon and Cedar

Author: Ron Hirschi

This text helps us to understand the culture of the Northwest Coast, especially the relationship between the people and their landscape.

PI 979 HIRS

Picking Blackberries

Eaglecrest Books

A picture story that demonstrates First Nations children picking blackberries in Duncan.

PI 41.8 ADA

Prince and the Salmon People, The

Claire Rudolf Murphy

A Story about the inter-dependence of humans and animals is based on stories from Tsimshian Elders.

PI 398.2 MUR

Salmon

Author: Pam Holloway

A leveled book that demonstrates how salmon is used by the Kwakwaka'wakw People.

PI 418 HOL

Saanich Year, The

Author: Saanich Indian School Board, Brentwood Bay 1993

The Saanich people describe the traditional calendar they share with the animals. The Salmon People and the animals still follow this age old calendar of 13 moons.

PI 394 CLA

Salmon, The

Author: First Nations Education Center, Terrace, B.C.

In early summer, people move to their fish camps. In the story the people are starving because of the way they treated the salmon. Dawk shared the laws with the people, who understand that if man treats the salmon with respect, the salmon will return every year and provide food.

PI 398.2 SD #82

Salmon Boy: A Legend of the Sechelt Boy

Author: Donna Joe

This story captures the legend of the Salmon as it relates to the Sechelt People.

PI 398.2 JOE

Teachings of the Elders: Story 5: Hunting

Author: Susan Cochrane and Judy Dallin

A young boy talks about his experiences preparing to hunt, and the process involved to be ready to go out hunting with the elders.

PI 394 SD #68

Thirteen Moons on Turtle's Back – A Native American Year of Moons

Author: J. Bruchac & J. London

Native American Legend, the thirteen scales on Old Turtle's back hold the key to the thirteen cycles of the moon and the changing seasons. These lyrical poems and striking paintings celebrate the wonder of the seasons.

PI 418 NAT

This Is a Salmon

Author: First Nations Education, S.D. #72: Campbell River

Whale Tales Series

A Level 2 book that uses colourful pictures to identify the salmon of the northwest coast.

PI 418 SD #72

Upper Sto' L'o A Story about Cedar Bark

Author: Coqueeltza Cultural Society

This booklet explains how and why the Sto' Lo' people have always respected and taken care of the cedar tree.

GS 371.3 STO

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 2: Animal Growth and Changes (page 67)

✚ Describe how animals are important in the lives of Aboriginal peoples in B.C.

- Identify from historical sources how animals were part of the lives of Aboriginal peoples (e.g. bear: fur for warmth during the winter: grease for cooking, and personal care: bones for tools)
- Illustrate in detail how animals help to meet the needs of local Aboriginal peoples (e.g. seal oil and meat on the West Coast; eagle feathers in ceremonies, deer skin for drums)

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

Arctic Adventures

Author: Raquel Rivera

An introduction to Inuit culture past and present.

PI 305.89 RIV

Artifacts of the Northwest Coast Indians (Teacher's Resource)

Author: Hilary Stewart

This is a teacher's resource that provides information through vivid descriptions and illustrations of tools that were made of stone or bone and used by coastal First Nations people.

GS 709.01 STE

Canadian Arctic Animals

Author: Colleayn O.Mastin

A book from the "Nature Canada Series".

PI 591.9 MAS

Caribou Girl

Author: Claire Rudolf Murphy

Caribou Girl embarks upon a journey to find the caribou that her people depend on for food. She is transformed into her namesake animal and meets her great grandmother Pakimna, a shaman who lives on the moon with Moon Man. She travels with the caribou spirit to live and learn the ways of the herd. When her journey is complete, she returns to her people to explain how they can live in harmony with the herd.

PI 813.6 MUR

Circle of Thanks

Authors: Susi Gregg Fowler & Peter Catolanotto

Dramatic Text and Luminous paintings call on all the senses to evoke the mysteries of humankind's connection to the natural world and gently suggest the importance of expressing thanks by word and deed.

PI 813.54 FOW

David's Day

Author: Diane Brookes

This is a simple story about a child's life out on the land in the summer months; based on experiences of children in the community of Cambridge Bay in the Arctic.

PI 813.54 BRO

Delta is my Home, The

Author: Tom McLeod

Tom McLeod is an 11 yr old boy from Aklavik of mixed cultural heritage—Gwich'in and Inuvialuit. Tom tells how the Mackenzie Delta floods in the Spring, how to make bannock, and about "ratting" (trapping muskrats) and hunting black ducks.

PI 971.9 McL

Discover the Animals & Explore the Animals - FN & Native Art Colouring and Learning books

Author: Native Explore

PI 745 NAT

Eagle Boy

Author: Richard Lee Vaughan

A Pacific Northwest Native Tale about an orphan in his coastal village. When winter comes and food is hard to find, the tribe must leave to search for more. But Eagle Boy is left behind and must figure out how to survive on his own.

PI 398.2 VAU

Eagle Feather-An Honour

Author: Ferguson Plain

A young Ojibway Boy grows up with his grandfather's teachings and learns the values of his life through the lessons of history, culture and the natural environment. As a result of his willingness to learn, his grandfather gives his Eagle Feather to the boy. This act of giving is an honour among the Native people who revere the all seeing-message of the Creator, the Eagle.

PI 813.54 PLA

Eagle of the Sea

Author: Kristin Bieber Domm

Learn about these amazing birds, their habitat, hunting skills, nesting habits and more.

PI 598.9 DOM

Emily, Moonshine and Sister Goose

Author: Susanne Lansonius

Follow Emily as she flies north to an Inuit village on the back of Sister Goose to visit her friend Moonshine. It is a beautiful and informative introduction to northern wildlife.

PI 813.54 LAN

First Nations Awareness: Putting It All Together (Teacher's Resource/Lesson Plans) Available in French

Author: Aboriginal Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

10 units of First Nations studies at the primary to intermediate level. They are based on the Pacific Coast Nations. (Coast Salish, Nuuchahnulth and Kwakwaka'wakw) E.g.: Salmon Legend and Salmon Cycle.

GS 371.3 FNED

First Nations in B.C. Comparing Interior and Coastal Cultures (Teacher's Resource/Lesson Plans)

Author: Aboriginal Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

GS 371.3 FNED

Fishing with Grandpa

Author: Wendy Edwards

PI 418 EDW

Foods of the Shuswap

Author: Shuswap Cultural Series Book 2

A book that highlights the food gathered and animals hunted for their traditional diet.

PI 971.1 SEC

From Time Immemorial: The First People of the Pacific Northwest Coast

Diane Silvey

A history of the coastal First Nations from pre-contact to the present.

PI 979.5 SIL

High Tide, Low Tide – A children's colouring story and activity book

Author: Gloria Snively

PI 574 SNI

Kwulasulwut (Stories from the Coast Salish)

Author: Ellen White

Ellen White Salish elder from Nanaimo recounts the stories of her people. Each story provides readers with the opportunity to travel on a journey through both nature and the supernatural world. The ending of the story presents one of life's lessons.

Grandma Goes Fishing and Hulutun the Magic Hunter are two stories which can be shared.

PI 398.2 WHI

Grandfather's Drum

Author: Ferguson Plain

The time for telling stories is when the weather turns cool and the leaves are gone. That was when grandfather would get out his drum and, gently beating his drum and chanting, would share his stories.

PI 398.2 PLA

How Raven Made the Tides

(ref. pp83)

Nelson Literacy 4A

Legends and stories about White Spirit Bear. (ref. pp 80)

PI 372 Mac

How We Saw the World

Author: C.J. Taylor

Nine stories which give us insight into how North America was seen by its first peoples. Discover the origin of tornadoes, forest fires, butterflies, horses, Niagara Falls and the islands off the Northwest Coast.

PI 398.2 TAY

Inuksuk Journey

Author: Mary Wallace

Eight days journey near Baffin Bay with Inuit guides.

PI 910 WAL

Keepers of the Animals: Native Stories and Wildlife Activities for Children

Authors: Joseph Caduto and Joseph Bruchac

This book is a comprehensive and effective resource for inspiring children to love and respect animals. Twenty seven stories demonstrate the power and importance of animals in Native American traditions and are more relevant today than ever.

PI 813.54 CAD

Little Water and the Gift of Animals

Author: C.J. Taylor

A Seneca legend that talks about Little Water's quest which helped him to learn from the animals that they give us food, clothing, shelter, and medicine to heal our bodies and that, in return, they deserve respect and gratitude.

PI 398.2 TAY

Mayuk the Grizzly Bear

Author: The Sechelt Nation

The Legend of the Sechelt People as it relates to the grizzly bear.

PI 398.2 SEC

Nanabosho and the Butterflies

Authors: Joe & Matrine McLellan

How the legendary friend and trickster created beautiful butterflies.

PI 398.2 MCL

Reef Net Technology of the Saltwater People

Authors: Earl Claxton Sr. & John Elliott Sr.

The book discusses reef-net technology, ceremonies, and stories of the moons and tides.

GS 639.2 CLA

The Mountain Goat People of Cheam: Sto':Lo' Nation

Author: Maggie Emery and Amelia Douglas

This story explains what happens to a young man who doesn't have the necessary skills and awareness of nature

to hunt mountain goats on the treacherous slopes of Mt. Cheam.

PI 398.2 EME

Three Snow Bears, The

Author: Jan Brett

The Goldilocks story takes a fine twist when an endearing snow bear family and a curious Inuit girl meet center stage in Jan Brett's stunning paintings of a land where the Inuit and the animals share the amazing Arctic landscape.

PI 813.54 BRE

Salmon Bears, The - Giants of the Great Bear Rainforest

Author: Ian McAllister & Nicholas Red

PI 599.77 McAL

Yetsa's Sweater

Author: Sylvia Olsen

This story talks about a young girl who will help her grandmother turn the new fleeces from the sheep into spinning wool to make a new Cowichan sweater.

PI 813.6 OLS

Upper Sto': Lo' Fraser Valley: Fishing

Coqueeltza Cultural Center

A booklet that identifies the types of fish, equipment and methods used by the Sto':Lo'

GS 371.3 STO

VIDEO

The Little Trapper

Video (24 min)

A 13 yr old Cree boy continues the tradition of his Cree ancestors. The boy continues to hunt, to fish and learn to be on the land based on the knowledge and skills passed down from one generation to the next.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K to 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 3: Stars and Planets (page 81)

- ✚ Demonstrate Awareness of the special significance of celestial objects for Aboriginal peoples.
 - generate specific questions in response to an Aboriginal story focusing on celestial objects (e.g. stars, moon, planets, comets, constellation, eclipses) and illustrate answers using detailed drawings)
 - write their own stories, complete with pictures, on a celestial object (e.g. how the moon came to be; why the sun is hot)

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

A Coyote Solstice Tale

Author: Thomas King

PI 813.54 KIN

All the Stars in the Sky - Native Stories from the Heavens

Author: C. J. Taylor

Since the beginning of time, people have been fascinated by the heavens. North American First Nations People were no exception. From Ojibwa, Salish, Netsilik, to Cherokee, they looked skyward, and weave a lively collection of tales that shine as brightly as the stars that inspired them.

PI 813.54 TAY

American Indian Astronomy (Teacher's Guide)

Author: Priscilla Anoka-Hennepin

This booklet is a series of lessons about the heritage of Indian people and how they connect to Astronomy.

GS 371.3: SD#11

Arctic Sky, The: Inuit Astronomy Star Lore and Legend (Teacher's Resource)

Author: John MacDonald

This is a tour of the arctic universe. Constellations, star lore, legends and mythology. The sun, moon, planets, shooting stars and atmospheric phenomena such as aurora borealis, are explored from a variety of perspectives.

GS 520.8 Mac

Beyond the Northern Lights

Author: Lynn Blaikie

In the remote north, a young girl calls on the raven to take her on a magical journey through the air, under the sea, and finally to a warm fire, where the elders sit and the native spirits dance.

PI 813.6 BLA

Coyote and the Sky: How the Moon, Sun and Stars Began

Author: Emmett "Shkeme" Garcia

This book is a Santa Ana Pueblo legend, the animal's spirit leader created the sun, moon and stars by using woven yucca mats and hot coals. A Pueblo story of the beginning of the stars and the constellations.

PI 398.2 GAR

Day the Sun was Stolen, The

Author: Jaimie Oliviero

A Haida legend that talks about the world when it was new and Raven created all the animals. Bear is hot and uncomfortable so he steals the sun.

PI 398.2 OLI

Earth Under Sky Bear's Feet, The – Native American Poems of the Land

Authors: Joseph Bruchac and Thomas Locker

PI 398.2 BRU

How Spirit Dog Made the Milky Way – A Retelling of a Cherokee Legend

Author: Michael O'Hearn

A Cherokee couple spends their days fishing and making cornmeal. When a giant dog steals the couple's cornmeal, their neighbors all gather to help. This Cherokee legend explains the creation of the Milky Way.

PI 398.2 OHE

How the Stars Fell into the Sky

Author: Jerrie Oughton

This is a retelling of a legend told to the Navajo Indians by Hosteen Klah, their great medicine man, at the turn of the twentieth century. It is part of the mythology that details the mysteries of Earth in the beginning.

PI 398.2 OUG

Inuksuk Book, The

Author: Mary Wallace

An overview which includes legends of the North Star and the Inuksuk in the sky.

PI 306.08 WAL

Keepers of the Earth: Teachers Guide

Authors: Michael Caduto and Joseph Bruchac

This is a book about living, learning and caring. It features a collection of Native stories and related hands-on activities designed to inspire children-ages 5 through 12. It helps them feel a part of their surroundings. Two Legends:

- How Coyote Was the Moon (ref. pp.111)
- How Fisher Went to the Skyland: The Origin of the Big Dipper (Anishinabe, Great Lakes) (ref.pp.117)

PI 398.2 CAD

Keepers of the Night: Native Stories and Nocturnal Activities for Children

Authors: Michael Caduto and Joseph Bruchac

This book offers a comprehensive study of important topics in astronomy, nighttime weather, and nocturnal plants and animals from habitats throughout North America. Through traditional Native stories, information, and activities, the world of night comes vibrantly to life.

PI 398.3 CAD

Kids Book of the Night Sky, The

Authors: Ann Love and Jane Drake

You will discover all the secrets the night sky holds. Play a game of "Night Sky I Spy"; keep an astronomer's log, read night sky myths and legends from different cultures around the world, including 3 Native American legends. Learn about the zodiac, the northern lights, eclipses and more.

PI 520. LOV

Kwulasulwut: Stories from the Coast Salish

Author: Ellen White

Ellen White, a Salish Elder, recounts the stories of her people. Each story provides readers with the opportunity to travel on a journey through both nature and the supernatural world, and at the end, to discover one of life's lessons.

PI 398.2 WHI

Legend of the Seven Sisters, The: A Traditional Aboriginal Story from W. Australia

Author: May O'Brien, Ab. Studies, Canberra

This story explains how the stars came to be where they are. Some stars are grouped together and have special names. This is the story of the stars called the Seven Sisters.

PI 398.2 OBR

Missing Sun, The

Author: Peter Eyvindson

Emily and her mother move to Inuvik where Emily has a hard time believing her mother's claim that the sun is going to disappear for many days.

PI 398.2 EYV

Muin and the Seven Bird Hunters - A Mi'kmaw Night Sky Story

Authors: Lillian Marshall, Murena Marshall, Prune Harris and Cheryl Bartlett

The story of Muin and the Seven Bird Hunters is a very old Mi'kmaw legend. It happens in the North Sky as the stars that show the story of Muin and the Seven Bird Hunters move around Tatapn, the North Star.

PI 398.2 MAR

Native Universe: Voices of Indian America (Teachers' Resource)

Author: Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian

Features the works and stories of many indigenous writers, scholars and teachers. How our universe and traditional knowledge shapes our world.

GS 970.004 NAT

Northern Lights: The Soccer Trails

Author: Michael Kususgak

Their scientific name is Aurora Borealis. We call them Aqsalijaat, the trail of those playing soccer. On Baffin Island, they are known simply as Aqsarniit "Soccer Trails". They like to come out when the sky is crisp and clear and the stars are twinkling brightly in the heavens.

PI 813.54 KUS

Raven and the First People: Legends of the Northwest Coast

Author: Thomas George

These are stories of the Pacific Coast that tells of gods and demons, good and evil; things unimaginable brought to life. The legends follow the traditions of the peoples of the Pacific Northwest and illustrate their profound relationship to the natural environment.

GS 398.2 GEO

Raven's Light

Author: Susan Shetterly

Raven, the trickster of the Northwest Coast created the world, and stole the light for his own world.

PI 398.2 SHE

Sharing the Skies: Navajo Astronomy A Cross-Cultural View

Authors: Nancy C. Maryboy, Ph.D & David Begay, Ph.D

GS 520.8 MAR

Skywoman: Legends of the Iroquois

Authors: J. Shenandoah & Douglas M. George

When Skywoman falls from the upper world, the birds and animals living in the watery place below must catch her and create ground on which she can stand. Thus Turtle Island, the earth, is born. In this beautifully illustrated book, two Native American writers tell the ancient stories of the Iroquois peoples.

GS 398.2 SHE

Star Boy

Author: Paul Goble

This is a story of how the sacred knowledge of the Sun Dance was given to the Blackfoot people. The full story was recorded in the Blackfoot Lodge Tales.

PI 398.2 GOB

Star Man, The – Other Tales

Author: Basil H. Johnston (Rana First Nation)

The Star Man brings together legends told by current narrators. The stories and art reveal the power of Objibway myth making and a world of star visitors, magical thunderbolts, thunder people, sea serpents and mermaids.

GS 398.2 JOH

Star People, The: A Lakota Story

Author: SD Nelson

Drawing upon traditional Lakota Art, SD Nelson's illustrations bring to life a memorable new legend about the Star People. [Grades 2 to 4]

PI 813.6 NEL

Stars Above: Earth Below (Teacher's Resource)

Author: Marsha C. Bol

A series of essays which describe how American Indians think of the natural world.

304.2 BOL

Ten Legends Workbook : Ojibwa and Iroquois Legends

Author: Ningwake Learning Press

Legend: The Dancing Stars (ref.pp 75-90)

GS DVD 371.3 NIN

They Dance in the Sky: Native American Star Myths

Author: Jean Monroe and Ray A. Williamson

Legends of the first Americans, including stories from the Plains, California, and Pawnee Indians.

GS 398.2 MON

When Seagull Stole the Sun

Author: Mabel Mitchell

PI 398.2 MI

DVDs

Raven Tales: How Raven Stole the Sun 25 Minutes

Raven is joined by his brother Eagle and the mysterious Frog. Together they will learn the secret that will release light into the world.

Raven Tales: Starlight, Star Bright 25 minutes

Eagle tells a story about how the old man and his daughter, who lost the light of the sun to Raven, were victims of another trickster – the Coyote.

Raven Tales: Musicians of the Sun 25 minutes

Frog tells the story of when the Great Spirit sent Raven to free the Musicians of the Sun to bring light and music into the world.

Muin and the Seven Bird Hunters – A Mi'kmaw Night Sky Story

In Mi'kmaw/English/French Mi'kmaw Elders et al

Aboriginal Astronomy Kit

Includes 6 books/DVD/student activities

Surrey School District #36

Grade 3: Learning Outcomes

✚ Describe how plants are harvested and used through the seasons.

- Identify and illustrate different methods of harvesting (e.g. mechanization, by hand)
- Research and report on how BC Aboriginal peoples use plants for food, medicine, and products.

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

Cedar

Author: Hilary Stewart

Tree of life to the Northwest Coast Indians, Stewart's drawings and photographs depict how the people made and used the finished products of the tree of life, the cedar.

674.0 STE

First Nations Science and Ethnobotany Unit K to 10: Shared Learnings in Action

There are 15 units that identify native plants on Vancouver Island, student experiments, information on identifying and locating the plants. Kwakwaka, Salish and Nuu-chah-nulth plant names are used.

GS 371.3

Foods and Plants of Coastal First Peoples

Author: Nancy J. Turner

This book describes more than 100 plants used for food by the Aboriginal people of coastal BC.

GS 581.6 TUR

Forest, The: Queen Charlotte Islands Reader

Author: Dawn Adams

This reader talks about the importance of the forest to the many animals that live within it.

PI 813.54 QUE

Going Wild: Teaching About Wild Products from B.C.'s Coastal Rainforests: A Guidebook for Educators for Grades 4-7

Author: Sierra Club

Grandma's Special Feeling

Author: Karin Clark with ANED of Greater Victoria School District:

Grandma teaches us how First Nations people used plants. This First Nations family has a very special grandma who remembers the many uses of plants in the forest and on the beach. She takes her family on an outing to Goldstream Park and teaches them how to identify several plants.

PI 418 FNED

Just a Walk

Author: Jordan Wheeler

A story of a young boy named Chuck who goes on a walk which turns into an all day adventure. During the walk Chuck has different encounters with animals, birds and fish that transport him through their environments.

PI 813.54 WHE

Indigenous Foods and Plants, Their Place in Culture

Author: SD#71 Comox Valley

PI 394 SD71

Keepers of the Earth: Native Stories and Environmental Activities for Children

Authors: Michael Caduto and Joseph Bruchac

This book provides legends from North America and related hands-on activities for children. Each activity facilitates a discovery of the environment and helps children understand the influence they have on their surroundings.

PI 398.2 CAD

Keepers of Life: Discovering Plants through Native Stories & Earth Activities for Children.

Authors: Michael Caduto & Joseph Bruchac

This book provides a complete program of study in botany, plant ecology and the natural history of every kind of North American plant-like organisms. This book focuses on environmental and stewardship issues that affect plants in our modern world.

PI 398.2 CAD

Lessons from Mother Earth

Authors: Elaine McLeod & Colleen Wood

Tess visits her grandmother's garden and learns that all of nature can be a garden. If you take care of the plants that are growing, you will always find something to nourish you.

PI 813.6 McL

Living World, The

Author: U'mista Cultural Centre

This book presents 101 species of plants and animals of cultural significance to the Kwakwaka'wakw. It identifies the relationship between the Kwakwaka'wakw and the natural environment.

GS 578 UMI

Medicine Walk

Author: Marie Gaudet

A story about the harvesting of plants, identifying what comes from Mother Nature.

PI 418 GAU

Plants of the Snaw-naw-as and Sne-ney-muxw People (Nanaimo, BC)

Author: Vivien Hermansen.

GS 581.6 SD #68 Nanaimo

Solomon's Tree

Author: Andrea Spalding

Solomon has a special friendship with the big old maple tree. When a storm tears it up by its roots, Solomon is devastated. But through the healing process of making a mask from part of the tree with his uncle, he learns about the cycle of life.

PI 813.54 SPA

Stars Above and Earth Below: (Teacher's Resource)

Author: Marsha C. Bol:

A collection of essays that describes how American Indians think about the natural world by examining the creation stories of various Native groups. The essays examine six major themes: origin stories, astronomy, culture and landscape, animals, botany and nature.

GS 304.2 BOL

Southwest Vancouver Island Ethnobotany for High School (Teacher's Resource)

Author: Paki Chipps

581.6 CHI TR

Sun, Moon and Stars Theme (Teacher's Guide)

Author: Donna Klockers

Teacher's guide for "The Stolen Sun" by Ellen White

GS 371.3 KLO

Taking Care of Mother Earth

Author: Leanne Flett Kruger

Grandma shares a loving story about taking care of Mother Earth. This story has a positive environmental message.

PI 333.72 KRU

Upper Sto:'Lo' Ethnobotany

Author: Coqueeletza Cultural Society

This booklet is on the subject of the ethnobotany of plants and trees known to the Upper Sto:'Lo' people of the Fraser Valley.

GS 371.3 STO

KITS:

What Plant Am I? Game checklist
by Pam Holloway/Cedar Moon Creations

POSTERS:

- Red Cedar: Aboriginal Ethnobotany
- Salmonberry: Aboriginal Ethnobotany
- Dull Oregon Grape
by Pam Holloway, Cedar Moon Creations

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 4: Habitats and Communities

- ✚ Learning Outcome: Demonstrate awareness of the Aboriginal concept of respect for the environment.

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

An Inuit Community (Teachers Resource)

The activities in this truly integrated resource are so much fun that students won't realize that they are learning! Puzzles and games, model making and visual exercises complement the skills used in word study, reading comprehension and creative writing.

PI 371.3 IRO

Canadian Arctic Inuit, The (Teachers Resource Grade 3-4)

Author: Joanne Irons

The activities in this truly integrated resource are so much fun that students won't realize that they are learning! Puzzles and games, model making and visual exercises complement the skills used in word study, reading comprehension and creative writing.

PI 371.3 IRO

Delta is my Home, The

Author: Tom McLeod

Tom McLeod is an 11 yr old boy from Aklavik of mixed cultural heritage—Gwich'in and Inuvialuit. Tom tells how the Mackenzie Delta floods in the Spring, how to make bannock, and about "ratting" (trapping muskrats) and hunting black ducks.

PI 971.9 MCL

Falcon Bow, The: An Arctic Legend

Author: James Houston

The fish have failed them and the caribou herds have not returned. A hot-headed young Inuit hunter accuses the inland Indians of deliberately setting fires to prevent the caribou migration. Kungo journeys inland to discover the truth only to find that the inland Indians are also starving. To prevent a bloody feud, together with his sister, Kungo manages to bring about a new understanding between the Inuit and Indians that result in lasting peace.

PI 813.54 HOU

First Nations Awareness: Putting It All Together (Teacher's Resource/Lesson Plans) Available in French

Author: Aboriginal Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

10 units of First Nations studies at the primary - intermediate level. They are based on the Pacific Coast Nations. (Coast Salish, Nuuchahnulth and Kwakwaka'wakw) E.g.: Salmon Legend and Salmon Cycle.

GS 371.3 FNED

First Nations in B.C. Comparing Interior and Coastal Cultures (Teacher's Resource/Lesson Plans)

Author: Aboriginal Nations Education Division Greater Victoria School District

GS 371.3 FNED

Gift of the Inuksuk, The

Author: Mike Ulmer

Many lives ago, a young girl in what would become the Nunavut territory of Canada, builds stone men, called Inuksuk, to direct her father and brother home when they are in a storm while hunting caribou.

PI 813.6 ULM

Giving Tree, The (CD included)

Author: Leah Dorion

A retelling of a traditional Métis story.

PI 398.2: DOR

Harpoon of the Hunter

Author: Markoosie

The hero of this story, young Kamik, achieves manhood during the hunt for a wounded polar bear. This is the first piece of Inuit fiction to be published in English describes life in the Canadian Arctic before the coming of the white man. It is an astonishing tale of a people struggling for survival in a brutal environment.

PI 398.02 MAR

Harvesting - Cree Hunting and Gathering Techniques

Author: Edmund Metatawabin

GS 813.6 MET

Honour Earth Mother

Author: Basil Johnston

Honour Earth Mother was written in the hope that it would help restore some of the affection and reverence that the Native Americans had for the land. It is an invitation to go into the woods and meadow, mountains, valleys and seaside to watch miracles unfold; to listen to nature's symphony's to feel the pulse of the earth, to take in the fragrances and to sense the awesome.

GS 398.2 JOH

Houses of Bark – Native dwellings: woodland Indians

Author: Bonnie Shemie

Bonnie Shemie's admiration for the genius of Native peoples involving problems of shelter propels this well-received series. Throughout, she never forgets her ultimate purpose: to make children as excited about the subject.

PI 392.3 SHE

Houses of Hide and Earth– Native dwellings: Plains Indians

Author: Bonnie Shemie

PI 392.3 SHE

Houses of Snow, Skin and Bones – Native dwellings: the Far North

Author: Bonnie Shemie

PI 392.3 SHE

Houses of Wood– Native dwellings: Northwest Coast

Author: Bonnie Shemie

PI 392.3 SHE

How Can One Sell the Air

Author: Eli Gifford

Chief Seattle's impassioned plea to respect the sacred web of life.

GS 979.7 GIF

I am the Eagle Free: Sky Song (Grades K-8)

Author: Simon Paul Dene

The goal of the story is that children would reflect upon the importance of reconnecting with their spiritual attachment to the earth.

PI 398.2 PAU

I'm Métis!

Victoria, B.C. 2007

A colouring activity book.

PI 745

Inuksuk Journey

Author: Mary Wallace

Eight days journey near Baffin Bay with Inuit guides.

PI 910 WAL

Keepers of the Earth (Grades K-12)

Authors: Michael J Caduto & Joseph Bruchac

A collection representing several Aboriginal groups in North America. The stories foster an ethic of stewardship by clearly showing that we are entrusted with the responsibility to maintain the natural balance, to take care of our other, and to be keepers of the earth. * Includes hands-on activities for students.

PI 398.2 CAD

Keepers of the Animals: Native Stories and Wildlife activities for Children (Grades K-12)

Authors: Michael J. Caduto & Joseph Bruchac

A collection of stories that focus on our relations with the animals. The 27 stories demonstrate the power and the importance of animals in Native North American traditions and are more relevant today than ever. This book provides a complete program of study in the important concepts of wildlife ecology and environmental issues concerning animals Includes hands-on activities for students.

PI 398.8 CAD

Kids Book of Aboriginal Peoples in Canada, The

Author: Diane Silvey

This book gives an overview of the seven main cultural groups. From first contact to the present, it looks at how Aboriginal people were affected by contact.

PI 971.00497 SIL

Kwulusulwut II: More Stories from the Coast Salish

Author: Ellen White - Theytus Books 1997

A blend of original and traditional Coast Salish stories, the characters pass through many magical experiences and adventures. Each story will provide you with an opportunity to discover one of life's lessons.

PI 398.2 WHI

Lord of the Sky

Author: Linda Zeman-Spaleny

PI 398.2 ZEM

Me and My Canoe

Author: Brad Bird

A journey from northern Manitoba down the Mississippi by canoe becomes a voyage of discovery, a celebration of the wild, and also a tribute to the people who live and work on the waterways.

PI 917.04: BIR

Métis Kit for Grade 4 level

Métis kit contains: 3 DVD's, 1 flag,
5 books & 1 sash.

PI 371.3: MET

Nanabosho Dances

Author: Joe McLellan,

In this legend, Kitchi Manitou presents Nanbosho with a gift of tobacco to be used as an offering before using the other gifts which were put on this earth. This legend tells how the Hoop Dance started.

PI 398.2 McL

Once Upon a Seashore :(A Curriculum for Grades K-6)

Author: Gloria Snively

This curriculum uses the seashore as a source of inspiration and a catapult for exploration and discovery. This book helps teachers plan and organize field trips to the seashore.

PI 371.3 SNI

Primary and Elementary Métis Awareness Program The (Grades: 1 to 4)

There are 30 pages of Ministry of Education prescribed learning outcomes for 10 academic areas. A unit of 48 one-page lessons, suggested pre and post tests, and additional activities. A colouring book and exercise pages unit augments the story lessons, artifact and craft unit, a traditional Métis music unit and an instructional DVD unit. Lessons in all five units are cross-referenced with each other, and comprehensive teacher introductions begin each unit.

PI 813.54

Qanuk Pinngurnirmata

Author: Rachel Qitsualik

Inuit stories of how things came to be.

PI 398.2 QIT

Salish Sea: A Handbook for Educators

Authors: Holly Arntzen, Daphne Macnaughton, Briony P. & Gloria Snively

The living oceans are essential to life on land, but the scope of human impact on inland seas such as the Strait of Georgia and Puget Sound has grown beyond any agencies ability to control.

GS 551.4 ARN

Secret of Your Name, The

Author: David Bouchard

The traditions and history of Métis people are being rediscovered by the Métis of today.

PI 811.54 BOU

Stars Above and Earth Below:

(Teachers Resource)

Author: Marsha C. Bol

A collection of essays which describe how American Indians think about the natural world by examining the creation stories of various Native groups. The essays examine six major themes and stories of origin.

304.2 BOL

Stolen Sun, The: a story of Native Alaska

Author: Amanda Hall

When Raven first created people and animals to fill the world beneath his great tent of sky, a song burst forth and brought everything to life. As time passed, Raven's song was drowned out by shouting and violence as the people grew disconnected and greedy. Raven tore the sun out of the sky and hid it. Raven's son Little Darkness brings light and Raven's song back to the world.

PI 398.2 HAL

Taking Care of Mother Earth – Caring for Me Series

Author: Leanne Flett Kruger

This book was developed to teach young children about the choices they can make to help care for the environment, empowering all children to make healthy choices.

PI 333.72 KRU

Tales from the Tundra

Author: Ibi Kaslik

A collection of Inuit stories.

PI 398.2 KAS

Tree Song

Author: H.E. Stewart, University of Alberta

Tutor House Press 2010

This story tells of silent, unchanging forests and of the life history of one Sitka spruce tree, home to numerous insects and birds. It speaks of First Nations People who honored the land and could hear the singing of the trees.

PI 813.54 STE

Winter Camp

Author: Kirkpatrick Hill

(Author of Toughboy and Sister)

After their parents die, Toughboy and Sister find a home with Natasha, the oldest woman in their Alaskan village. When winter comes, she takes them out of school to her trapping camp, where they learn to live off the land as their ancestors did.

PI 813.6 HIL

CD ROM

Teachings of the Four Elements: An Introduction to Science (CD ROM)

Ningwakwe Learning Press Publication

This material was based on an Ojibwa understanding of the Medicine Wheel. It is the balance of the four elements that allows us to continue living on Mother Earth. Not one of the four elements can be altered without affecting the others.

Videos:

Lord of the Sky

Video - 12 min

This video focuses on a people living in harmony with nature until carelessness leads to the raven's revenge. We follow a boy's courageous journey to the spirit world to find the only one who can save the village from the resulting darkness – Lord of the Sky.

Raven Tales: Return of Kulos DVD 25 Minutes

S'gaana the whale won't allow the villagers to fish. Faced with starvation, Wina decides to fight back. After a disastrous attempt at catching S'gaana, Wina finds inspiration in a series of visions he has of the great Kulos. Using the power of Kulos, he forces the whale into respecting the villagers and sharing the ocean.

Raven Tales: The Sea Wolf DVD 25 Minutes

A young man Gwai asks Frog for help with his poor fishing skills. She tells him the story of the Sea Wolf; a great creature who has lived in the sea since the time of creation. Gwai enlists the Sea Wolf's help to become the greatest fisherman in the village. But will he give the Sea Wolf his due or take the credit for himself?

Photos:

The Métis: Two Worlds Meet

Gabriel Dumont Institute

This is a set of 36 study prints describing various aspects of Métis lifestyles, accompanied with background information and questions.

GS 971.2

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K to 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 5: Forces and Simple Machines

Learning Outcome:

- ✚ Describe applications of simple and compound machines used in daily life in BC Communities
- Analyze how the Aboriginal concept of inter-connectedness of the environment is reflected in responsibility for, and caretaking of resources

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

A Native American Thought of It: Amazing Inventions & Innovations

Authors: Rocky Landon/David MacDonald

The Native peoples of N. America have always had two important instruments of survival: the environment and amazing creativity.

PI 609.7 LAN

As Long as the Rivers Flow

Author: Larry Loyie

It is summer, a busy time full of learning and adventure. Through observation, practice, stories and ceremonies First Nations children gained the skills they needed to survive as well as the values, language and history that enabled them to pass on their heritage.

PI 971.23 LOY

Canoe He Called Loo Taas, The

Author: Amanda Reid-Stevens (Haida Gwaii)

A big canoe named Loo-Taas was made from a cedar tree. It took five months to carve her and set her in the sea.

PI 623.82 REI

Carving a Totem Pole

Author: Vickie Jensen

(Douglas, McIntyre, Vancouver Everbest Printing)

PI 731.7 JEN

First Nations Technology

Author: Karin Clark/FNED PI 418 FNED

Inuit thought of it, The: Amazing Arctic Innovations

Author: Alootook Ipellie and David MacDonald

This book explores more than forty ideas crucial to that survival. From items still familiar to us today (like kayaks and parkas) to inventive concepts that shaped their lives. Celebrate the creativity of a remarkably resourceful people.

PI 303.48 IPE

Kids Book of Aboriginal People, The

Author: Diane Silvey

This book gives an overview of the seven main cultural groups. From first contact to the present, it presents how Aboriginal people were affected by contact.

PI 971.00497 SIL

Shaped Cedars and Cedar Shaping: A Guidebook to Identifying, Documenting, Appreciating and Learning from Culturally Modified Trees (Teacher Resource)

Author: David Garrick

Discover the fascinating world of shaped cedar bearing marks of generations of careful bark harvests by traditional foresters working the rainforest's "Cedar Gardens" of Hanson Island.

GS 971.1 GAR

You Are Asked to Witness: The Sto':Lo' in Canada's Pacific Coast History

Author: Keith Thor Carlson

This anthology of essays focuses on the Halq'emeylem speaking peoples known as the Sto':Lo' who live along the Fraser River. Issues from contact to contemporary urbanization are addressed. GS 971.13 CAR

Stone, Bone, Antler and Shell: Artifacts of the North-West Coast

Author: Hilary Stewart

A depiction of a wide range of artifacts. Questions such as: "How were they made? What was their function? How are they used?" are asked.

GS 971.1 STE

Thomas and the Métis Cart: Tumaas ekwa li Michif Sharey

Author: Bonnie Murray

Thomas's dad helps him build a replica of a Red River Cart for science class, and Thomas learns another chapter of his Métis heritage.

PI 813.6 MUR

Photos:

The Métis: Two Worlds Meet

Gabriel Dumont Institute

This is a set of 36 study prints describing various aspects of Métis lifestyles, accompanied with background information and questions. GS 971.2

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 6: Explorations of Extreme Environment

- ✚ Describe contributions of Canadians to exploration technologies

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

A Native American Thought of It: Amazing Inventions & Innovations

Authors: Rocky Landon/David MacDonald

Annick Press 2008

The Native peoples of N. America have always had two important instruments of survival: the environment and amazing creativity.

PI 609.7 LAN

Cedar

Author: Hilary Stewart

Tree of life to the Northwest Coast Indians, Stewart's drawings and photographs depict how the people made and used the finished products of the tree of life.

GS 674.0 STE

Artifacts of the Northwest Coast Indians

Author: Hilary Stewart

This book identifies over 1000 illustrations each prepared from original Northwest Coast artifacts of bone, antler, shell and various kinds of stone.

GS 709.01 STE

Indian Fishing- Early Methods on the Northwest Coast

Author: Hilary Stewart

GS STE639.2

Inuit thought of it, The: Amazing Arctic Innovations

Author: Alooook Ipellie and David MacDonald

This book explores more than forty ideas crucial to that survival. From items still familiar to us today (like kayaks and parkas) to inventive concepts that shaped their lives. Celebrate the creativity of a remarkably resourceful people.

PI 303.48 IPE

The Inuit thought of it: Amazing Arctic Innovations

Author: Alootook Ipellie

For hundreds of years the Inuit used their ingenuity to make their home in one of the harshest environments.

PI 303.48 IPE

Kids Book of the Far North, The

Author: Ann Love and Jane Drake

It's December and the temperature has dropped to forty degrees below zero. Fierce winds have blown for weeks, and the sun won't rise above the horizon until February. This is the Far North. But around the top of the world are plants, animals and people who have developed remarkable ways of adapting.

PI 909.09 LOV

Living in the Arctic

Author: Allan Fowler

This colourful, fact-filled book brings young readers on an exciting field trip to the Arctic. It describes the region's land, vegetation, people, and wildlife.

PI 971.9 FOW

Ochechak: The Caribou Hunter – Indians of the Subarctic

Author: James Cass

The land, the people,
and the life of the Indians of the Subarctic.

PI 971.9 CAS

Reef Net Technology of the Saltwater People

Authors: Earl Claxton Sr. & John Elliott Sr.

Saanich Indian School Board

This book focuses on the reef net ceremonies, moon and tides of the Saanich people.

GS 639.2 CLA

Shaman's Nephew, The: A Life in the Far North

Author: Simon Tookoome with Sheldon Oberman

Jewish storyteller/author Sheldon Oberman collaborates with Simon Tookoome to create this remarkable story that will magically transport readers to a cold climate that warms and grows more familiar with every turn of the page.

PI 971.9 TOO

Thomas and the Métis Cart: Tumaas ekwa li Michif Sharey

Author: Bonnie Murray

Thomas’s dad helps him build a replica of a Red River Cart for science class, and Thomas learns another chapter of his Métis heritage.

PI 813.6 MUR

Toughboy and Sister

Author: Kirkpatrick Hill (Author of Winter Camp)

This quiet, simply told story speaks in a distinctive voice about stoic, courage, dignity and survival of two children who in the summer, leave their Alaskan village to help catch and smoke salmon with their father, but the camp is even set up, their father vanishes. The children are left alone in the wilderness to fend for themselves. Days and weeks pass. Their food runs out and their radio stops working. What are they going to do now?

PI 813.6 HIL

Videos:

Gah nohs: A Treasure (Video)

This is a record of the building of the dug-out canoe by artist Art Thompson and his assistant Morris Sutherland of the Nuu-chah-nulth Nation.

Cesar’s Bark Canoe (Video 57 min)

Cesar (Atti Kamek Reserve) builds a canoe the old way using bark, cedar splints, spruce roots and gum.

Games:

Canoe Journey Game, The

Campbell River School District

The game introduces and reinforces aspects of respect, integrity and conscientious thinking.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

Science K - 7 Integrated Resource Package

Aboriginal Learning Outcomes

Grade 7: Ecosystems

- ✚ Evaluate human impacts on local ecosystems

ANED Library Resources: 556 Boleskine Road [GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL DISTRICT]

Bulrush Helps the Pond, The

Author: Ken Carriere

This book is written in Swampy Cree and English. It's story is of the fragile Prairie wetland ecosystem and the interplay of the pond animals with replenishing bulrush.

PI 577.68 CAR

A River Lost

Author: Lynn Bragg

In a River Lost, a young girl and her grandmother, Toopa, watch the waters rise behind the Coulee Dam as it swallows their village, their livelihood and their way of life. This is a true story.

PI 971.1 BRA

Clam Gardens: Aboriginal Mariculture on Canada's West Coast (Teachers Resource)

Author: Judith Williams

An historical perspective on the new evidence that suggests West Coast indigenous people cultivated from clam gardens.

GS 639.44 WIL

Fishing: British Columbia's Fishing History (Teacher Resource)

Author: Joseph E. Forester

Written in honour of the people who built and operated British Columbia's commercial fishing industry. They recall the old days of Indian fishing on the coast.

GS 338.9 FOR

We Feel Good Out Here: Zhik gwaa'an nakhwatthaiitat gwiinzii

Author: Julie-Ann Andre and Mindy Willett

This is a story about Julie-Ann Andre, a Canadian Ranger, a mother, a hunter, a trapper, a business owner, and a student. She shares her family's story and the story of her land – Khaii Luk the place of winter fish and the Gwichin people.

PI 971.9 AND

You are Asked to Witness: The Sto'Lo' in Canada's Pacific Coast History

Author: Keith Thor Carlson

This anthology of essays focuses on the Hala'emeylem speaking peoples known as the Sto'Lo' who live along the Fraser River. Issues from contact to contemporary urbanization are addressed. (Chapters 8-10)

GS 971.3 CAR

Video:

Eyes of Our Children (Video 27 min)

The way of life of the Heiltsuk people of Bella Bella is being threatened. Large corporations are extracting resources leaving a land and sea that will be incapable of sustaining our people. The story is told through the eyes of children in the cultural science.

Planet Earth: Caring for our Environment

National Film Board of Canada

Lord of the Sky/Paradise Lost/Journey of the Blob

National Film Board of Canada