

Register for BC First Nations Studies 12

- ☑ BC First Nations Studies 12 is a course designed for all students.
- ☑ BC First Nations Studies 12 earns four credits towards the graduation requirements.
- ☑ You may choose BC First Nations Studies 12 to complete your Social Studies 11 requirements, or
- ☑ You may use these credits either as foundation studies credits or as selected studies credits.
- ☑ You may earn a total of eight credits towards your graduation requirements by completing BC First Nations Studies 12 and Social Studies 11, but you may only designate the credits for one of these courses as foundation studies credits. In this situation, the credits for the second course must be designed as selected studies credits.
- ☑ Contact your school counselor to register:

Counselor(s) Name(s):

.....

BC First Nations Studies 12 documents the history and cultures of First Nations and Métis people in British Columbia before the arrival of Europeans to the present. It examines the historical foundations of contemporary issues and illustrates how First Nations cultures have adapted to changing world events and environments.

Aboriginal Nations Education Division, SD#61 556 Boleskine Road
Victoria, B.C. V8Z 1E8 Telephone: 250-475-4124