

Media Release

January 30, 2007

For Immediate Release

At the Public meeting last evening, the Board of Trustees passed the following motion:

“That the Board approves the consultative process to consider closure of Cloverdale Elementary School and Lampson Elementary School effective July 1, 2007 and that the Board agrees to commence the consultative process as follows:

February 5, 2007	Public meeting on possible school closure to be held at Lampson Street School. Booklet distributed. Open mike. Information meeting, PowerPoint presentation on rationale.
February 8, 2007	Public meeting on possible school closure to be held at Cloverdale Elementary School. Booklet distributed. Open mike. Information meeting, PowerPoint presentation on rationale.
March 5, 2007	Public meeting to receive input on possible school closure to be held at Lampson Street School. Round table discussions, questions, answers and comments.
March 8, 2007	Public meeting to receive input on possible school closure to be held at Cloverdale Elementary School. Round table discussions, questions, answers and comments.
April 10, 2007	Public Board meeting to deliberate, debate and make decisions regarding possible school closures.”

The public is encouraged to attend the meetings at each school. Details of time will be placed on the District website