
REGULATION 4114

CRIMINAL RECORDS REVIEW

1. The requirements of the Criminal Records Review Act and Board Policy will be met as follows:
 - a) The B.C. College of Teachers will conduct criminal record reviews for all current and future employees who possess a teaching certificate. The College will notify the school district by double registered mail of the names of any member identified as posing a risk to children.
 - b) The Human Resource Services Department will conduct criminal records reviews for ALL other employees, and for persons engaged in service contracts where the nature of the service contract will require working with children directly or having or potentially having unsupervised access to children.
2. It is a condition of employment, and continuing employment, and a condition of contracted services (as per B above), to comply with the requirement to undergo a criminal record review and to meet the requirements of the Criminal Records Review Act.

NEW EMPLOYEES (OTHER THAN CERTIFIED TEACHERS)

3. When an individual is offered employment they shall be advised that the offer is conditional upon the result of the criminal record review. A new employee may commence work if they have signed and submitted a criminal record check authorization to Human Resource Services. If the individual is found through the review process to be a risk to children the offer of employment is cancelled.

CURRENT EMPLOYEES (AS AT JANUARY 1, 1996)

4. a) A current employee will sign a criminal record check authorization as a condition of continuing employment. If a current employee is declared through the review process to be a risk to children the current employee will no longer meet the qualifications for employment with the School District and employment will be terminated.
- b) If an employee is charged with or convicted of a relevant offence (see Schedule 1) subsequent to a criminal record check, the employee must within seven (7) days report in writing the charge or conviction to the Human Resource Services Department, and provide the Human Resource Services Department with a signed criminal record check authorization. If the employee is a certified teacher the teacher shall report the charge or conviction and provide a signed criminal record check authorization directly to the British Columbia College of Teachers.
